Meet Our Awesome Speaker

Professor Wright holds a Ph.D. from Nottingham University and was a senior lecturer position at the University of Sheffield before taking up his current position at the Audencia Business School, France in 2022. His research interest is at the intersection of strategy and organization theory, with a specific focus on the production, performance, judgment, and practice of organizational strategies. He has published extensively in the very top management journals of the field such as Academy of Management Learning and Education, Organization Studies, Management Learning, Organization, and Journal of Management Inquiry.

This seminar presents a fresh perspective on judgment in organizational and management theory, informed by philosophy and specifically, Hannah Arendt's profound insights. Please register by 24th, October.

Intended Participants:

This seminar is open to faculty members and students of the Graduate School of Business Administration who are interested in organizational studies, social theories and qualitative research methods. Members from other graduate schools are also welcome to join us for a profound discussion.
